Hello ALA Members,

It is with great regret that we inform you of the immediate resignation of Deb Rhodes from the position of ALA Director of Administration.

Since her election in 2019, Deb exercised her duties with great care, intelligence, and diligence. She was always a strong source of expertise and experience for her colleagues, and her financial expertise and governance knowledge will be missed.

The ALA Board of Directors thank Deb for her tireless work.

Sincerely,

ALA Board of Directors
